CLAIM PROCEDURES

Landlord Claim Responsibilities It is the landlord's responsibility to notify CoSign My Lease when their current tenant vacates the residence prior to the expiration of the Residential Lease Agreement. The Landlord must meet all conditions as outlined in this section. Otherwise, no payments will be issued and the claim will be denied.

Landlord will relist the home using a Preferred Agent for the duration of the claim period and all new applications must be submitted to the Preferred Agent. Landlord will forward to CoSign My Lease a copy of the initial Residential Lease Agreement signed by the tenant(s) and the landlord and a copy of the tenant(s) completed Rental Application with the tenant's social security number, date of birth, and contact information.

Proof of Loss Landlord must provide proof of loss before CoSign My Lease will pay the rent. CoSign My Lease's Preferred Agent will inspect the home to assure the home meets the conditions as outlined in this section. The Loss Date is effective the day the residence meets all conditions as outlined in this section.

Conditions No payment shall be made without satisfactory proof that the home is:

1. Vacant
2. In "Move In" condition
3. Listed with a Preferred Agent
4. Advertised to the general public by way of the local MLS, publically accessed website, newspaper, or yard sign.

Payment of Loss Beginning on the Loss Date, per Lease Agreement, full rent payments are made, less the monthly installments. All payments are delivered by the fifth day of the month and will cover the previous month's loss of rent. If the loss date or a new tenant is approved on a date other than the 1st day of the month, the loss payment will be prorated for the month.

During the Claim Period CoSign My Lease will pay the rent until the first occurrence of one of the following events:

1. For up to sixty days from the Loss Date,
2. Until the Expiration Date of the current Lease Agreement, or
3. Until the Commencement Date of a new Lease Agreement.

All rental payments are made to the person or entity listed in this guaranty as Landlord or Authorized Representative.

During the Claim Period CoSign My Lease will pay up to 50% of one month's rent to a Licensed Realtor which brings a tenant that executes a new Residential Lease Agreement.

CoSign My Lease reserves the right to pursue a tenant with a judgment for nonpayment of rent and court costs as outlined in the Residential Lease Agreement. Any payments received as a result of a claim against the tenant will be the sole property of CoSign My Lease.

GENERAL

Force Majeure If either party fails to perform in whole or in part its duties under this Agreement due to an event of force majeure, the performance of such duties shall be suspended during the period of such event of force majeure.

A party that claims that it has been affected by an event of force majeure shall notify the other party of such event of force majeure in writing in the shortest period possible, and shall provide appropriate evidence of the existence and period of the event of force majeure to the other party within fifteen (15) days after its occurrence. A party that claims that the performance of this Agreement is objectively impossible and impractical due to such event of force majeure shall take any reasonable measures to lessen the losses caused by such event of force majeure.

An event of force majeure refers to any circumstances that cannot be reasonably controlled, predicted, avoided, or overcome, and occurs after the execution of this Agreement, which make the performance of this Agreement in whole or in part impossible or impracticable as a matter of fact, including but not limited to any situation where Arbitration Agreement CoSign My Lease and Landlord agree that all controversies between the parties concerning any transaction or the construction, performance or breach of this or any agreement between us, whether entered into prior, on, or subsequent to the date hereof, will be resolved through arbitration. Landlord understands that this agreement to arbitrate does not constitute a waiver of the right to seek a judicial forum where such waiver would be void under the federal laws. Such arbitration will be before one arbitrator, unless parties agree to use more, and otherwise conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association then applying. The award of the arbitrator will be final. Judgment upon any arbitration award rendered may be entered in any court, state or federal, having appropriate jurisdiction and the prevailing party in such arbitration will receive reasonable attorney’s fees and costs incurred as set by the laws of the state of Texas.
